Saint Maria Goretti

Maria was born on October 16, 1890. Maria's parents were sharecroppers, and in 1899, they moved to Ferrire, Italy. Her father thought he had a better chance to find work there. He met the Serenelli family and they made a deal, in which the Goretti family could live with them. The Serenelli family had a son named Alessandro. Maria matured quite early. She hardly ever complained, and she helped her family with chores. She was growing in her spirituality as well. Maria was very excited to have her First Holy Communion, and that was one of her highlights of her life.

Alessandro made some very dark choices. He frequently made advances to Maria. He also harassed her. Maria continued to turn him down. However, one day Alessandro didn't take no for an answer. On July 5, 1902, Alessandro raped Maria and stabbed her fourteen times. As he stabbed her, Maria told him that she forgave him and God loved him. Doctors couldn't save Maria, and after twenty hours of suffering, she died. As she suffered, she continued to pray for Alessandro and forgive him. The last thing she looked at was a picture of The Blessed Mother.

About fifty years later, Maria was declared a Saint and Martyr by Pope Pius XII. She is the Patroness of Modern Youth and her feast day is July 6. Her mother and Alessandro attended the canonization.

Alessandro went to prison immediately after killing Maria. At his trial, he was only sentenced to thirty years of hard labor because of his young age. While he was in prison, Maria appeared to him. She smiled and was surrounded by lilies. That was a turning point in Alessandro's life. He had peace. When his sentence was over, he asked forgiveness from Maria's mother. At a Christmas mass, he even asked for forgiveness from the parish. His life was firmly devoted to God. He died May 7, 1970
