ANNOUNCEMENTS

The church office will be closed every Thursday and Fr. Jihad will be out of town. If you have an emergency please call Deacon Marty. (232-9713)

Tony Massad will be leaving Wednesday, August 23, 2006 to enter Our Lady of Lebanon Seminary in Washington, D.C. There will be a Spaghetti Dinner and Dance to raise money to help cover some of Tony's expenses. It will be held Saturday, August 12, 2006 beginning with Mass at 5pm, Dinner at 6pm followed by the Dance. Pat Haley and our MYO GROUP will prepare the Dinner. Tickets are $10 Adults and $7 for children 5 and under. If you would like a ticket please see Chuck Solomon.

Father Jihad is beginning his home visits. His goal is to visit every parishioner in the parish. He is doing ½ hour visits and asks that you please not cook. If you would like to schedule an appointment for a visit please call the church office.

Religious Education will begin September 10, 2006. We are currently looking for volunteers to teach. If you are interested in teaching religious education please see Freda Hearsch.

Enrollment for Religious Education will begin Sunday, August 13, 2006. There will be a table in the hall and Freda will be available with registration forms.

The Car Raffle Fundraiser is doing great. The 2006 Buick Lacrosse CX will be on display at various businesses and members of the parish council will be there selling tickets. Tickets are $5 each or 5 tickets for $20. Tickets for the Dinner and Hafli are $100 it admits two for Dinner and the Hafli plus 25 raffle tickets. There also is an Ad Book being printed. If you would like to run an ad for your business or maybe a memorial page for a loved one please see Duane Gardner.

Moses

"And when she could hide him no longer she took for him a basket made of bulrushes, and daubed it with bitumen and pitch; and she put the child in it and placed it among the reeds at the river's brink. And his sister stood at a distance, to know what would be done to him. Now the daughter of Pharaoh came down to bathe at the river, and her maidens walked beside the river; she saw the basket among the reeds and sent her maid to fetch it. When she opened it she saw the child; and lo, the babe was crying. She took pity on him and said, "This is one of the Hebrews' children. ... And the child grew, and she brought him to Pharaoh's daughter, and he became her son; and she named him Moses, for she said, "Because I drew him out of the water." (Exodus 2:3-6,10 RSV)

Moses is one of the best-known people of The Holy Bible. He played a key role in the Exodus, and later he received The Ten Commandments from God (twice - he smashed the first set when he discovered the Israelites running wild at the foot of Mount Sinai i.e. Exodus 32:19 and 34:1). He directed the construction of The Tabernacle and The Ark Of The Covenant. He is also the author of The Pentateuch, the first 5 Books of the Bible - Genesis, Exodus, Leviticus, Numbers, and Deuteronomy.

Moses was a Levite (Exodus 2:1), son of Amram and Jochebed (Exodus 6:20), brother of Aaron and Miriam (1 Chronicles 6:3). He was born in Egypt (Exodus 2:1-2), in the region of Goshen in The Nile Delta, where, even under brutal slavery, the Israelites had grown to a great multitude that the Egyptians eventually viewed as a national security threat (Exodus 1:12) (see Growth Of A Nation).

To escape the Egyptian king's edict to kill all male Hebrew infants (Exodus 1:15-16), Moses' mother Jochebed and sister Miriam (Mary is the Greek form of the Hebrew name Miriam, an interesting coincidence since Moses was the deliverer of God's physical people, just as Jesus Christ is the Deliverer of God's spiritual people - and both spent their infancy in Egypt) put him a waterproof basket, and set it adrift in The Nile River (Exodus 2:3-4). The basket was found by the Pharaoh's daughter who adopted the infant. She named him Moses, because, "I drew him out of the water" (Exodus 2:5-10). Moses sounds like the Hebrew for draw out, in Moses' case, saved from the water.

Moses was raised in the palace of the Pharaoh where he was educated in "all the wisdom of the Egyptians." After he had grown up, Moses killed an Egyptian who had been abusing a Hebrew (Exodus 2:11-12). When Pharaoh learned of the killing, he tried to kill Moses, but Moses fled for his life into the desert of Sinai (Exodus 2:14-15). There he met Jethro, a priest of Midian. Moses married one of Jethro's daughters, Zipporah (Exodus 2:15-22).

When his time of training was completed, God appeared to Moses in the burning bush and gave him his mission - the Exodus (Exodus 3:1-22). Moses was 80 years old at the time of the Exodus. He had spent 40 years in the palace of Pharaoh (learning how to govern), and 40 years in the Sinai (learning how to live in the Sinai wilderness) - all in preparation for his third 40 years, which would be spent on The Wilderness Journey.
