Saint Longinus

Longinus was one of the soldiers in charge of crucifying the Lord. After the Lord had delivered up His soul, Longinus pierced His side with a spear, and blood and water flowed from His Side. Longinus marveled exceedingly when he saw this, and his amazement increased when he saw that the sun became dark, the rocks were split and the earth shook. He believed and realized all the miracles, which Our Lord performed from His Birth to His Crucifixion.

Longinus was standing there with the guards when they sealed the tomb. When Our Lord rose from the sealed tomb, Longinus was perplexed, and he asked God to explain to him this mystery. Our Lord sent to him the Apostle Peter, who told him everything, which had been prophesied concerning the Redeemer. He believed, abandoned the military service, went back to his country, and preached the Name of Christ.

When Pilate heard about this, he wrote to Tiberius, who ordered his head cut off, and thus he received the crown of martyrdom.

There was a woman who had believed St. Longinus when he preached in Cappadocia. During his execution, she stood, weeping, and witnessed his martyrdom. Later on she became blind. So, she took her son and departed to Jerusalem to be blessed by the holy places, and the holy sepulcher, hoping that she might regain her sight. When she arrived in Jerusalem, her son died. She became very sad and grieved because of her condition and there was no one to take her back to her own country.

During her sleep she saw St. Longinus, and with him, was her son who had died. He directed her to where his head was buried and ordered her to remove it. When she woke up, she looked for the place until she found it. She dug in the ground and a sweet aroma of incense came out. When she reached the head of the saint, a great light shone from it and straightaway her eyes were opened and she was able to see.

She glorified the Lord Christ, kissed the head, perfumed it, and placed it with the body of her son. Then she returned to her own country glorifying the Lord Christ Who performed wonders through His saints.
