St. Catherine of Sienna Doctor of the Church

Feastday: April 29

Catherine of Sienna was the youngest child of a wool dyer in northern Italy. From her earliest childhood Catherine began having mystical experiences and seeing visions. When she was only 6 she was seeing guardian angels as clearly as the people they protected. At the age of seven she consecrated her virginity to Christ. In her sixteenth year she took the habit of the Dominican Tertiaries and continued to have visions of Christ, Mary, and the saints. After three years of celestial visitations and familiar conversation with Christ, she underwent the mystical experience known as the "spiritual espousals", probably during the carnival of 1366. She rejoined her family, began to tend the sick, especially those afflicted with the most repulsive diseases, to serve the poor, and to labor for the conversion of sinners. Though always suffering terrible physical pain, living for long intervals on practically no food save the Blessed Sacrament, she was ever radiantly happy and full of practical wisdom. All her contemporaries bear witness to her extraordinary personal charm, which prevailed over the continual persecution to which she was subjected even by the friars of her own order and by her sisters in religion. She began to gather disciples round her, both men and women, who formed a wonderful spiritual fellowship, united to her by the bonds of mystical love. During the summer of 1370 she received a series of special manifestations of Divine mysteries, which culminated in a prolonged trance, a kind of mystical death, in which she had a vision of Hell, Purgatory, and Heaven, and heard a Divine command to leave her cell and enter the public life of the world.

St. Catherine was one of the most brilliant theological minds of her day, although she never had any formal education. She persuaded the Pope to go back to Rome from Avignon, in 1377 and when she died she was endeavoring to heal the Great Western Schism. In 1375, Our Lord gave her the Stigmata, which was visible only after her death. Her spiritual director was Blessed Raymond of Capua. St. Catherine's letters and a treatise called "A dialogue" are considered among the most brilliant writings in the history of the Catholic Church. She died when she was only 33, and her body was found incorrupt in 1430.

We wish to offer a special thanks to Scott and Man Shaheen for donating their time to replace the outside church lights and for donating the replacement bulbs that were needed.

Thank you also to John Milad Zerka for donating a dryer and microwave oven to the parish to replace the ones that were no longer working.
