Our Lady of Lebanon 2nd annual Golf Scramble was held on Saturday, May 30 at Sugarbush Golf Club, Davison, MI. We had 14 teams competing this year which was down from last year. Pasty Lou Buick - Chevrolet-GMC sponsored the hole-in-one prize of a new Buick Enclave. Although no one managed a hole-in-one, there were plenty of other prizes donated to give everyone a chance to win something. It was a little chilly, but we didn't get any rain or snow and everyone had a great time while making a profit of nearly $3,000 for the parish. Thanks to all the volunteers, players and sponsors that made our 2009 Golf Scramble a great success. A special thanks to Duane Gardner and Chuck Soloman for all their efforts in putting this event together.

St. Germain Cousins

Feastday June 15

Born in 1579 of humble parents, St. Germain from her birth seemed marked out for suffering. She came into the world with a deformed hand and the disease of scrofula and lost her mother as an infant. Her father's second wife treated Germaine with much cruelty. As a child she was employed as a shepherdess. When she returned at night, her bed was in the stable or on a litter of vine branches in a garret. Germaine learned early to practice humility and patience. Her lonely life became to her a source of light and blessing. To poverty, bodily infirmity, and lack of affection from those in her own home, she added voluntary austerities, making bread and water her daily food. She deeply loved Jesus in the Blessed Sacrament and for His Virgin Mother. She assisted daily at the Holy Sacrifice; when the bell rang, she fixed her sheep-hook or distaff in the ground, and left her flocks to the care of Providence while she heard Mass. Although the pasture was on the border of a forest infested with wolves, no harm ever came to her flocks.

It was observed that her piety increased on the approach of every feast of Our Lady. The Rosary was her only book, and her devotion to the Angelus was so great that she used to fall on her knees at the first sound of the bell, even though she heard it when crossing a stream. Whenever she could do so, she assembled the children of the village around her and sought to instill; into their minds the love of Jesus and Mary. Despite her poverty she found means to help the poor by sharing with them her allowance of bread. Her father at last came to a sense of his duty and forbade her stepmother to treat her harshly. He wished to give her a place in the home with the other children, but she begged to be allowed to remain in the humbler position. At this point, when men were beginning to realize the beauty of her life, God called her to Himself. One morning in the early summer of 1601, her father finding that she had not risen at the usual hour went to call her; he found her dead on her pallet of vine-twigs. She was then twenty-two years of age.
