Our deepest condolences to Jeffery & Alicia Wofford on the death of Jeffery's father, Ralph Wofford on August 22, 2009. Our prayers and thoughts are with them in their time of sorrow.

The first step to getting the thing you want out of life is this: Decide what you want.

Saint Abda, Martyr

Feastday August 31st

St. Abda was bishop of Susa in Iran. He was born in fourth-century Chaldor to a Zoroastrian mother. The latter educated him in good virtues, which made him loved by everyone.

After Abda gained an excellent education and grew up in a virtuous life, he was ordained a priest, and built in his hometown a monastery and a school, which he took personal care of and which grew to have around 60 teachers. Abda baptized for Jesus many lambs in Chaldor, and brought others to the true faith, which caused the magi to arrest him. In his prison, Abda endured humiliations, hunger, and pain persevering in his faith in Jesus, until his miraculous release.

During the persecution that was led by Shapur II against the Christians, a tree-cross grew up from the ground and caused numerous miracles. This tree brought many people around it, where they built a monastery, which Abda later joined and used as a base to preach the Gospel of Life. Abda became a bishop over Kaskhar, and many people followed in his footsteps, becoming disciples of him.

Engaged in a dispute with the local magi in AD 420, he was accused of burning down one of their temples, a pyramid of Ahura Mazda. King Yazdegerd ordered the bishop to restore and repair the building at his own expense, upon Abdas' refusal the King ordered the destruction of the churches. These events soured the relationship between the Christian church and the Persian government which had previously been good, and caused a wave of persecution against the Christians in Persia. Abda is supposed to have helped Maruthas in driving out a demon from Yezdegerd's, nothing else certain is known of him. Tradition adds to this that he was one of the first martyred in the persecution (he was clubbed to death), and for this he is considered a saint. His companions including the priests Hashu and Isaac, the secretary Ephrem, the Hypodeacon Papa, the laymen Daduk and Durdan, and Papa, a brother of Abda were also killed.

Prayer to the Virgin Mary

Mary, holy virgin mother, I have received your Son, Jesus Christ. With love you became his mother, gave birth to him, nursed him, and helped him grow to manhood. With love I return him to you, to hold once more, to love with all your heart, and to offer to the Holy Trinity as our supreme act of worship for your honor and for the good of all your pilgrim brothers and sisters.

Mother, ask God to forgive my sins and to help me serve him more faithfully. Keep me true to Christ until death, and let me come to praise him with you forever and ever. Amen.
