Just On Time

At a time of the year when the days are becoming shorter and we are moving toward the winter solstice, when the snow is everywhere and Christmas decorations shine in the night, when the air is filled with the sights, sounds and fragrances of the season, when the rich enjoy their gifts and the poor dream of being wealthy, the Church is preparing us for the coming of the Light of the World. Through the Advent images of light and darkness, shorter days and longer nights, the Word of God is preparing us for the Light of His presence in a deeper union with Him. Let us welcome the Emmanuel— God with us— in our hearts with joy, peace and Love.

In this Christmas season, I want to express to you how grateful I am for your commitment and loyalty to your spiritual home of Our Lady of Lebanon Church and congratulate each one of you, young and old, on the Birth of Christ who unites us.

May the Lord Jesus, our Sun, shine his light upon you and enlighten your way on your journey toward his kingdom

Merry Christmas

Thank You

We would like to thank all of our parishioners who have donated so generously to the families of Hurley Hospital. Your gifts of food and money have helped to provide baskets and gift cards to four families this holiday season. Thanks also to all of you who donated poinsettias and money help the Altar Society with cost of decorating the church this Christmas. We would especially like to express our appreciation to Juliet Hermiz, Eliane Zerka, Aida Hayek & Sawsan Kalo and all those who volunteered their time and talents to decorate the hall and church. They did a wonderful job and the church looks great!

The Real Christmas

Merry Christmas! It's that holly berry day with the festive jingle bells – Santa Claus gaiety that we all love. So tear open the gifts and pour the eggnog! It's peaceon-earth day! Let's celebrate ... and don't you dare say anything negative that might "spoil" it!

Well, I'm going to tell you what Christmas really means, whether you like it or not. It is revealed that Jesus, the Savior, has come into the world in which we live. He didn't come to Disneyworld, to Never Never Land or to Toyland Jesus comes to our land, to this world.

It's a world where there is joy ... but also sorrow ... a world where there is happiness ... but also pain. It is a world of peace ... and war.

There are gifts of gold, frankincense, and myrrh ... but also there are nails, a purple robe and a crown of thorns.

This year, there are couples celebrating their first Christmas in their new homes. There are young men and women celebrating their first Christmas together. There are newborn babies celebrating their first Christmas ... ever.

And there are people too who celebrate their first Christmas without a husband, a wife, a parent, a close friend.

The true Christmas is not just for the jolly and it's certainly not only for children. It's for you and me, no matter what our situation.

Jesus, the Savior comes to each of us every year at this time to bring us what we need... comfort, grace and strength.

Christmas is a glorious day ... not because all our presents fit ... but because it is revealed that the sweet Baby lying in the manger ... is the divine Man hanging on the cross ... demonstrating God's lavish love for us. Because of that I say truly:

Merry Christmas

Subdeacon Earl Matte

CHRISTMAS WITH SANTA

Santa Claus and Mrs. Claus took time out of their busy schedule to pay a visit to Our Lady of Lebanon Sunday, December 19th. Both the children and adults had the opportunity to have their pictures taken with Santa Claus at our "Santa Station". Santa and Mrs. Claus also visited the classrooms and passed out candy to the children
