HOSANNA... CRUCIFY HIM.

It's Palm Sunday already! While commemorating the triumphal entry of Jesus into Jerusalem, Palm Sunday announces the Glory of Christ through his Passion, Death and Resurrection. It is the beginning of Holy week. In Hebrew the name of Jesus is formed with the same root as Hosanna: Yeshua and Hoshana: Yahweh saves.

No one can really know Christ unless he walks where Jesus passed. We can not discover in him divinity unless we accept unreservedly his humanity. Jesus' life was not repeatedly softened and made easy by miraculous interventions. Betrayed by his own people, unjustly accused by his opponents, sentenced to death, the Witness of truth, the Perfect, will not be saved in extremis by a legion of angels.

Perhaps, on this Sunday, we too shout Hosanna and then we crucify him on Good Friday as the crowd did. We can be an apostle or traitor, Peter or Judas, Herod, Caiaphas, Pilate and/or the Centurion. We betray the Word by listening without putting it into practice. We can imprison Jesus in the wilderness when our creed and faith do not change our lives. The Passion of Christ continues. Every day He is re-crucified, no longer by Jews and Gentiles, but by Christians and those baptized. This time his cry is toward any one of us: 'why did you forsake me?' Do I have the right answer?

Prayer for Holy Week

Jesus my Lord, let me strengthen my courage by taking on the courage of all those who have been "centurions" for me.

They faced disasters and hard times with great constancy. Evil never turned them against You. They kept on going. Let me be like them, Lord.

No matter what the cross, let me never stop declaring you to be "truly the Son of God", the source of my hope, the reason why I will never quit on life.

Father, into Your hands I commit my Spirit!

Does repentance not make us feel better?

A true Christian does not consider himself better than others. He knows that he has made mistakes, he has been selfish, he has not been generous enough, and that he is not supposed to judge anyone.

Lent provides the Christian with an opportunity to improve himself, to be better with the help of Christ, not just by large demonstrations of giving and repentance, but in silence and with discretion too, by changing his heart.

Announcing loudly and clearly that we made sacrifices would be hypocritical. The proper Christian makes no noise and knows that he must do good and seek perpetual renewal.

We think of being perfect as selfish. The Christian knows he is imperfect but that Jesus Christ loves him in his misery and his shortcomings: it is what gives all Christians the desire to be better for God and for others

HOLY THURSDAY

APRIL 1, 2010

Holy Thursday is observed during Holy Week on the Thursday before Easter. This day commemorates the Last Supper when Jesus shared the Passover meal with his disciples on the night before he was crucified. In contrast to joyful Easter celebrations when Christians worship their resurrected Savior, Holy Thursday services are typically more solemn occasions, marked by the shadow of Jesus' betrayal.

You will often see Holy Thursday referred to as Great Thursday or "Maundy Thursday." The word Maundy is derived from the Latin word mandatum, meaning commandment. This refers to the commands Jesus gave his disciples at the Last Supper: to love with humility by serving one another and to remember his sacrifice. While different churches observe Holy Thursday in their own distinct ways, two important biblical events are the primary focus of Holy Thursday services:

Before the Passover meal, Jesus washed the feet of his disciples. By performing this lowly act of service, the Bible says in John 13:1 that Jesus "showed them the full extent of his love." By his example, Jesus demonstrated how Christians are to love one another through humble service. For this reason, we practice footwashing ceremonies as a part of our Holy Thursday service.

During the Passover meal, Jesus took bread and wine and asked his Father to bless it. He broke the bread into pieces, giving it to his disciples and said, "This is my body, given for you. Do this in remembrance of me." Then he took the cup of wine, shared it with his disciples and said, "This wine is the token of God's new covenant to save you. An agreement sealed with the blood I will pour out for you." These events recorded in Luke 22:19-20 describe the Last Supper and they form the biblical basis for our practice of Communion today.
