WHO IS THE PRODIGAL SON? AM I?

Our Lenten Countdown Continues this week with the Parable of the Prodigal Son. Today we explore the two themes of Repentance and Forgiveness with the youngest and oldest son.

Are we any different? This parable reminds us of the words of Jesus in the Gospel: “You hypocrite, first take the log out of your own eye, and then you will see clearly to take the speck out of your brother’s eye” (Mt 7,5).

Perhaps the faithful parishioner’s who stay with the church (like the oldest son) need to practice more penitence and humility than the others especially in welcoming them back after being far away? We follow the rules, but with a lack of love.

Let us all repent and grow in the Father’s likeness. “For it is in giving that we receive, it is in pardoning that we are pardoned, and it is in dying that we are born to eternal life.”

THE FORTY MARTYRS OF SEBASTE

Feastday March 9th

These holy martyrs suffered at Sebaste, in the Lesser Armenia, ruled by the Emperor Licinius, in 320. They were of different countries, but enrolled in the same troop. Lysias was duke or general of the forces, and Agricola was the governor of the province. The forty went boldly to their leader, and said they were Christians, and that no torments should make them ever abandon their holy religion.

The cold in Armenia is very sharp, especially in March. Under the walls of the town stood a pond which was frozen solid. The judge ordered the saints to be exposed, naked upon the ice of the pond on a bitterly cold night, so that they might freeze to death. In order to tempt them to renounce their faith, a warm bath was prepared at a small distance from the frozen pond, available for any person in the company willing to deny his religion.

According to St. Basil, one soldier yielded and, leaving his companions, sought the warm baths prepared near the lake. One of the guards set to keep watch over the martyrs beheld at this moment a supernatural brilliancy overshadowing them and at once proclaimed himself a Christian, threw off his garments, and placed himself beside the thirty-nine soldiers of Christ. Thus the number of forty remained complete. At daybreak, the stiffened bodies of the confessors, which still showed signs of life, were burned and the ashes were cast into a river. The Christians, however, collected the precious remains, and the relics were distributed throughout many cities; in this way the veneration paid to the Forty Martyrs became widespread, and numerous churches were erected in their honor.
