Questions for Mother

Is there something you've always wanted to ask your Mom?

Try asking:

1. Why did you choose to marry my father?
2. Do you think it's easier or harder to be a mother today?
3. What's one thing, as a mother, you would have done differently?
4. How am I like you?
5. Is there anything you have always wanted to tell me but haven't?
6. Is there anything that you wish had been different between us.
7. Is there anything you would still like to change?
8. Is there anything you regret not having asked your parents?
9. What's the best thing I can do for you now?

Use the answers to better understand and draw closer to Mom and the rest of the family.

God bless families with respectful, intelligent and loving mothers.

Announcements:

Religious Education

Religious education classes begin this Sunday. Please see Alicia Massad after mass for the registration forms if you have not already completed them. If you have a child who will be making their First Holy Communion this year, please note that we will need a copy of their Baptismal Certificate if they were not baptized here at Our Lady of Lebanon.

Volunteers Needed

As we only have one instructor each for grades Pre-K, Kindergarten and First Grade religious education classes the instructors for these grades are asking that parents work as aides in their children's classes. They will need one parent to volunteer each week and are asking that all parents participate. The teachers will have a sign-up sheet for parents to choose the Sundays they are able to work. If everyone participates, no one should have to volunteer more than two or three Sundays a year.

Stewardship Committee

The Stewardship committee will meet on Monday October 4th at 7:00 PM.

Parish Council

The Parish Council will meet Tuesday October 5th at 7:00 PM in the library.

Saints Cyprian & Justina Martyrs

Feastday: October 2nd

St Cyprian was a pagan and a native of Antioch. From his early childhood his parents dedicated him to the service of the pagan gods. Cyprian studied at the most outstanding centers of paganism. He gained great abilities in the sorcerer's craft and was consecrated into the pagan priesthood on Mount Olympus. He discovered great power by summoning unclean spirits. He beheld the Prince of Darkness, spoke with him and received from him a host of demons in attendance. On returning to Antioch, Cyprian was revered by the pagans as a prominent pagan priest. He amazed people with his ability to cast spells, summon pestilence and plagues, and conjure up the dead.

The holy virgin Justina lived in Antioch during this time. After turning her own father and mother away from paganism and leading them to Christ, she dedicated herself to the Christ and spent her time in fasting and prayer. When the youth Aglaides proposed marriage to her, she refused, because she wanted to remain a virgin. Aglaides sought Cyprian's help and asked for a magic spell to charm Justina into marriage. Nothing Cyprian tried worked. Justina foiled the all of the attacks of the devil by the making sign of the cross. Cyprian, in a rage, sent down pestilence and plague upon Justina's family and upon all the city, but this was thwarted by her prayer

St Cyprian then tested for himself the power of the Sign of the Cross and the Name of Christ. After making the sign of the cross he was so moved that with deep repentance he went to the local bishop Anthimus and threw all of his pagan books into the flames. The very next day, he went into the church, and did not want to leave it, although he had not yet been baptized. He was received into the Church and became in succession deacon, priest, and finally bishop, while Justina became the head of a convent.

During the persecution against Christians under the emperor Diocletian, Bishop Cyprian and Abbess Justina were arrested and brought to Nicomedia, where after fierce tortures they were beheaded with the sword. St Cyprian, fearful that the holy virgin's courage might falter if she saw him put to death, asked for time to pray. St Justina joyfully inclined her neck and was beheaded first.

??QUESTIONS THAT HAUNT ME??

Can you cry under water?

How important does a person have to be before they are considered assassinated instead of just murdered?

Why do you have to 'put your two cents in'... but it's only a 'penny for your thoughts'? Where's that extra penny going?

Once you're in heaven, do you get stuck wearing the clothes you were buried in for eternity?

Why does a round pizza come in a square box?

What disease did cured ham actually have?

How is it that we put man on the moon before we figured out it would be a good idea to put wheels on luggage?

Why is it that people say they 'slept like a baby' when babies wake up like every two hours?

If a deaf person has to go to court, is it still called a hearing?

Why are you IN a movie, but you're ON TV?

Why do people pay to go up tall buildings and then put money in binoculars to look at things on the ground?

Why do doctors leave the room while you change? They're going to see you naked anyway.

Work spares us from three evils:
boredom, vice, and need.

Prayer to St. Cyprian

You spurned the falsehood and lore of idolatrous teaching and armed yourself for salvation with the sword of the Cross O most blessed Cyprian Discarding your books of sorcery you put off Satan; and the divine knowledge of the Trinity dwelt within you, O righteous Father Cyprian, together with godly Justina we ask that you intercede for us before God the Creator of all that we be saved. Amen
