Keeping Christmas Year Round

You can keep Christmas alive for 365 days according to Liguorian magazine. Try these ideas:

1. See God in yourself. "The word became flesh" says the Gospel according to John. How well do you treat your body and soul?
2. See God in all people. Genesis says, "God created humankind in His image." To mistreat a human being is to desecrate the image of God in the person.
3. See God in every living creature. All creatures have value and dignity, regardless of how they might be useful to us. Live so that all may flourish.
4. Be a sacrament of God's love. Affirm, enrich, and strengthen yourself, your spouse, family friends and strangers.

Live the joy of Christ's birth each day and remember.

"Love your neighbor as yourself". (Mark 12:31)

Submitted by Deacon Marty

*"Since God is everywhere, where can I look and not see God?
"I choose to remember that, whatever I look at, whomever I see, God is there."*

Announcements:

Congratulations

Congratulations to Francis & Salwa Haddad on the marriage of their daughter, Dana Haddad to Bernard Herro here at our Lady of Lebanon Church Saturday, July 30th. May God bless the happy couple and may they love one another as God has loved them.

Condolences

We wish to extend our condolences to the following parishioners and their families who recently lost loved ones.

Wilson & Gloria Lahoud: on the passing of Gloria's uncle, Sayedna George Kwaiter Monday, July 25th in Saida, Lebanon.

Bob and Sharon Griffiths: whose cousin Shawn Coole passed away Friday, July 29th here in the Flint area.

Sameer & Manal Dabish: Manal's aunt, Dalilah Petros-Quia passed passed away Sunday, July 31st in Detroit.

Please keep all of the departed and their families in your thoughts and prayers. May their families take comfort in the fact that those who die still live in God's presence, and that their lives change but do not end. May God have mercy on all of our dearly departed and may He bring them to rejoice with Him in everlasting life.

St. Laurence

Feast Day: August 10th

Laurence is one of the most widely venerated saints of the Roman Catholic Church. Since the Perseid Meteor Shower typically occurs every year in mid-August, on or near Saint Laurence's feast day, some refer to the shower as the "Tears of Saint Laurence."

After the death of Sixtus, the prefect of Rome demanded that Laurence turn over the riches of the Church. Laurence asked for three days to gather together the wealth. Laurence worked swiftly to distribute as much Church property to the poor as possible, so as to prevent its being seized by the prefect. On the third day, at the head of a small delegation, he presented himself to the prefect, and when ordered to give up the treasures of the Church, he presented the poor, the crippled, the blind and the suffering, and said that these were the true treasures of the Church. This act of defiance led directly to his martyrdom.

By tradition, Laurence was sentenced at San Lorenzo in Miranda, martyred at San Lorenzo in Panisperna, and buried in the Via Tiburtina in the Catacomb of Cyriaca. Tradition holds that Laurence was burned or "grilled" to death, hence his association with the gridiron. Tradition also holds that Laurence joked about their cooking him enough to eat while he was burning on the gridiron, hence his patronage of cooks and chefs, stating something along the lines of, "turn me over ... I'm done on this side".

Constantine I is said to have built a small oratory in honor of the martyr, which was a station on the itineraries of the graves of the Roman martyrs by the seventh century. Pope Damasus I rebuilt or repaired the church, now known as San Lorenzo Fuori le Mura. The minor basilica of San Lorenzo in Panisperna was built over the place of his martyrdom and the gridiron of the martyrdom was placed Pope Paschal II in the church of San Lorenzo in Lucina.

Father, you called Saint Laurence to serve you by love and crown his life with glorious martyrdom. Help us to be like him in loving you and doing your work. Grant this through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit one God, for ever and ever. Amen

Congratulations Abouna Hanna on your promotion!

Every six years, the Maronite Order of the Blessed Virgin Mary (OMM) elects a new Superior General (Abbot) and four Assistant Generals. In reality, the position of the Superior General is like a Bishop, he has the right to wear and carry pontifical insignia for the Order. After him, the order of seniority is Assistants in the first, second, third, and fourth level.

Last Friday, July 29th, all members of the Order voted and elected Fr. Boutros Tarabay as new Superior General and four Assistant General, Fr. Hanna Tayar – your pastor– is one of them!

According to the rules of the Order, to be eligible for Assistant General you must:

- Be more than 35 years old
- Have more than 10 years of professing his perpetual vows
- Serve with good example, have a good and rich spiritual life experience, and zeal to defend the Order, its spirit, and customs
- Be distinguished by his knowledge and culture of the Order

Potential candidates do not run, seek the position, or lobby in any way. All members of the Order who meet the above requirements can be voted for anonymously. That was the case of Fr. Tayar. He left the U.S. to assist at the General Chapter of the Order, but it ended with his election by his brother priests as an Assistant General for the Maronite Order of the Blessed Virgin Mary. As Assistant General, Fr. Tayar will assist the Superior General in governing and administrating the Order, spiritual life and vocation of the Order, education, pastoral and mission activities, and manage all financial aspects of schools, monasteries, and universities and attend the General Council weekly.

However, it's important to acknowledge and recognize how important he was to each one of you members of Our Lady of Lebanon Church throughout the last three years. He led you on your spiritual journey during good times and bad. He dedicated himself preparing his weekly messages that encouraged you to draw closer to God, to give your utmost for the One who gave all, and to face your own weaknesses with truth and forgiveness. I think it's the best time to thank, appreciate, and acknowledge Fr. Tayar – your Pastor, for making such a big difference to your Church for his generous and holy service and congratulate him for his new assignment.

May God bring Fr. Tayar many blessings as he begins his new assignment as Assistant General of the Maronite Order of the Blessed Virgin Mary.

Remember this:

When people choose to withdraw far from a fire, the fire continues to give warmth, but they grow cold. When people choose to withdraw far from light, the light continues to be bright in itself but they are in darkness. This is also the case when people withdraw from God. ~Augustine
