Weekly Bulletin

Sunday April 29, 2012 – Sunday, May 6, 2012

He put on his clothes for he was lightly clad.

Now that we will be entering into the warmer season, something that should be brought to our attention is how we show respect with our dress. Something we often fail to notice is that in this Gospel, we are called to always be decent before the Lord, even if we are very familiar to him. I call upon the women folk especially to be decent in their attire at all times, as not to be a cause of scandal for others and especially in church.

For the Lord says elsewhere in the Gospel: "Woe to those on whose hands there will be scandal ..."

"Also that women should adorn themselves modestly and sensibly in seemly apparel, not with braided hair or gold or pearls or costly attire but by good deeds, as befits women who profess religion."

1 Tim 2:9-10

"So-called moral permissiveness rests on an erroneous conception of human freedom; the necessary precondition for the development of true freedom is to let oneself be educated in the moral law."
